

Enrollment documents for the Master's course in environmental engineering (Geothermal Energy System)

1. Application for enrollment (completed and signed)
2. Passport picture (please write your name on the back), only if you were unable to upload a picture when enrolling online.
3. National passport with your photo and your personal data as well as residence permits (photocopies).
4. The - foreign - certificates and certificates that open access to the desired course of study (university entrance qualification) must be submitted in officially certified form and in German or English translation (sworn interpreter or translator) (unless uploaded to uni-assist)
5. Proof of sufficient language skills in an officially certified form. Which language requirements must be met, please refer to the above link.
6. Prior to online enrollment, an insurance certificate for studies must be requested from the health insurance company. This will be sent electronically to the Bochum University of Applied Sciences.
Please indicate the "Gesonderte Absendernummer" H0000683 for the Hochschule Bochum.
Further instructions can be found here
7. The semester fee of 356,02 euros must be paid before registration. The bank details are as follows: Recipient: Bochum University of Applied Sciences, Bank: Sparkasse Bochum IBAN: DE80430500010001202811BIC / Swift: WELADED1BOC Please note your first and last name as well as the applicant ID as the purpose of use. The total amount of 356,02 euros must be proven upon registration, either by copying the payment slip, presenting the account statement or with evidence from online banking.
8. Exmatriculation certificates from all attended universities or vocational academies. Evidence must show that the degree program, the duration of the course (total number of semesters) as well as the subject, university and vacation semester and the desired final goal must be stated. Certificates due to non-feedback are not accepted In Germany, a certificate of no objection - a certificate stating that you have not yet finally failed an examination - must be submitted.

As of January 2022